Information and Instructions

1. This form is to be completed to transfer UPS Class A shares to UPS Class A Shares. No action will be taken unless you validly complete all required information. Should you omit any information, you will be notified by a reject letter that no action has taken place and will be required to complete a new form.
2. You must convert to UPS Class B shares if you wish to transfer shares to a Non-Permitted Transferee. Generally, Non-Permitted Transferees are anyone other than the following list of Permitted Transferees:
 - a) Your Spouse or children
 - b) Trust for sole benefit of yourself, your spouse, or children
 - c) Your estate
3. If shares are transferred to a Permitted Transferee, the Permitted Transferee must have a W-9 or W-8BEN (international) on file at Computershare or submit the completed Substitute W-9 or W-8BEN form on pages 5 and 7. Otherwise, the transferee will be subject to Federal Backup Withholding.
4. If you are changing the named custodian on your existing UPS Class A Custodial Account, in section 3 under "New Account Registration" write the new custodian name, the name of the minor child, the appropriate State Under the Uniform Transfers to Minor Act (UTMA), and the mailing address. If a new custodian has been named due to death, a copy of the death certificate of the deceased custodian and certificate of court appointed custodian must accompany this form. If the minor is over 14 years old, the birth certificate of the minor and a notarized letter by the minor appointing the new custodian is acceptable in lieu of certificate of court appointed custodian. To transfer shares to a new or existing Custodial Account (with no name change), in Section 3 under "New Account Registration", write the custodian name, the name of the minor child, the appropriate State Under the Uniform Transfers to Minor Act (UTMA), and the mailing address.
5. If you are transferring shares into an IRA, please have your IRA Provider complete the transfer instructions in Section 3 and sign the form in Section 4 acknowledging acceptance of the UPS Class A Shares into the IRA. The IRA Provider should retain a copy of this form for their records.
6. If you are transferring ownership of UPS Class A shares that are held in certificate form, the UPS Class A Certificate must be surrendered to Computershare with this form.
7. You may elect to transfer less than all of the UPS Class A shares represented by the first receipt number you have listed. With respect to all other receipt numbers listed, all of the UPS Class A shares represented by those receipt numbers will be transferred. You must list sufficient receipt/certificate numbers to cover the number of shares in your transfer request.
8. If you have any questions, please contact Computershare toll free number 1-888-663-8325 or visit our website www.computershare.com.
9. No hypothecated, enjoined or otherwise Restricted Class A shares can be transferred.
10. For transfers due to death, Date of Death will default to the date that the transfer is processed unless provided. If we receive documentation (e.g., death certificate) with the transfer instructions, date of death will default to the date indicated in the document. For transfers due to death, the Value per Share is required to determine the cost basis to be applied per beneficiary. For gifts, you have the option of providing a gift date for certificates; if the Gift Date is not provided, it will default to the date that the transfer is processed. For book entry shares, the gift date will always be the date that the transfer is processed. If you select "None of the above," the existing cost basis will be carried over to the new account. You may wish to consult with your tax advisor on the definition and tax implications for each type of transfer.

Important Tax Information: Under current federal income tax law, UPS shareowners are required by law to provide the Transfer Agent with their correct Taxpayer Identification number (e.g. their social security number or employee identification number) on a W-9 or W-8BEN form. Stockholders may be subject to a $50.00 penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and any dividends paid to such shareowners by Computershare (as agent for UPS) may be subject to backup withholding.

The Transfer Agent is required to withhold at the IRS mandated applicable percentage rate of any interest and dividends which are paid to UPS shareowners for whom backup withholding applies. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Persons subject to backup withholding will be allowed to recognize the amount as a payment of tax returns. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained from the IRS. TO PREVENT BACKUP WITHHOLDING, UPS SHAREOWNERS SHOULD COMPLETE AND SIGN THE SUBSTITUTE W-9 OR W-8BEN ON PAGES 5 AND 7. Certain shareowners, including among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. Foreign individuals must submit a statement, signed under penalties of perjury, to the Transfer Agent (a form of which the Transfer Agent will provide upon request) attesting to the individual's exempt status.

Internet Instructions: You may certify your Tax Identification Number on the Internet at www.computershare.com, by selecting Employee Online. Please do not fill in this Substitute W-9 form if you certify your Tax Identification Number on the Internet.

How to complete this form

Backup Withholding

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires us to withhold taxes for the applicable rate of backup withholding for U.S. persons without a W-9 tax certification who are not otherwise exempt. Parties acting as disbursement agents, such as Computershare, must withhold and pay to the IRS the applicable tax rate of such payments under certain conditions. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, and royalties. Supplying us with your correct Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), and signing this form will generally allow you to receive your payments without being subject to backup withholding. Failure to supply your TIN, or supplying us with an incorrect TIN, could result in a $50.00 penalty being assessed by the IRS.

Receipt of a completed Form W-9 will discontinue backup withholding unless otherwise required.
